

E. P. Adams of Shawnee, Okla., is here to improve his homestead. He has been away a little over five months and notes the improvements of the city with enthusiasm.

Auction.

I have purchased the W. G. Howell bankrupt stock, and will now sell $5,000.00 worth of it and my original stock at public auction.

The stock consists of watches, clocks, jewelry, cut-glass and painted china, silverware and musical instruments. First sale, Monday, May 20, at 2:30 p. m.

Two sales daily, beginning at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., continuing until the required amount is raised.

This is a chance of a life time to buy fine goods at your own prices. Ladies especially invited. A handsome present to a lady at each sale. Come and get one. You can not afford to miss these sales. Come everybody.

Mrs. E. Hudson, of Waco, Texas, is among new arrivals who contemplate making Tucumcari her future home. She is a dress-maker and will open a business at her residence in a short time.

The Goldenberg store is enlarging shelf room in both departments in order to accommodate goods that are arriving every week.
